Respondents

These petition coming on for hearing, upon perusing the petition and grounds filed in support thereof and the order of the High Court dated 16-08-2005 and made inCMAMP. No. 1604 of 2005 and upon hearing the arguments of Mr. C.A.R. Seshagiri Rao, Advocate for the Appellants, the Court made the following

ORDER:

"Since the appeal value is less than rupees five Lakhs, in view of the amendment made to the A.P. Civil Courts Act by Act 16 of 2005, an appeal against the order passed by the Senior Civil Judge, lies to the District Judge.

Since the appeal itself is presented on 11-08-2005 i.e., after said amendment came into force, the office ought not to have been entertained the appeal. Therefore, the office is directed to retuned the bundle to the learned counsel for the appellants, for enabling him to file before the appropriate Court. The interim suspension order on 16-8-2005 is resolved and parties are at liberty to obtain appropriate orders from the competent Court."
